Old Business:

- MonsterFest updates
  - Tim at Extreme Flight will sponsor the event. Tim will give us a discount.
  - Eugene Toy & Hobby will be a sponsor too.
  - Ken is still trying to get hold of Legend Hobby.
  - Food trucks:
    - Ken talked to the Breakfast Stop truck and they can't do it.
    - Scouting America have offered to do burgers and hot dogs for us.
      - It is a good fund raiser for them and good outreach for us.
- No updates on upgrading the charging.
- More work to be done on burning off weeds. Will wait for a drier weekend.
- Jim said he could haul any tables away that are too old. This still needs to be done.
- Roger replaced the tops of the old table frames.
- Ryan Meadows Neighborhood Sale report.
  - Martin, Dave and Ken staffed the table at the event.
  - Response was very positive.
  - All the flyers for MonsterFest and the brochure went.

- Combining the fall swap meet with the Labor Day fun fly.
  - Ken to update the flyer for the website.
  - Ken asked if we could use part of the field to the south for parking. Mike said that would depend on a number of variables.

New Business:

- Warbird Fun Fly on July 4th – details on the website
- Scouting America would like to do a Monday evening event for the scouts
  - Around 15 kids.
  - Buddy boxing with a trainer.
  - August 4th or 11th, 6:30pm.
  - We should get someone with a giant scale 3D plane to do a demo
- Jim said we have a new pump system. Al said it wasn't pumping well this week. Jim suspects silt in the pipes.
- July meeting at the field – Saturday July 19th.
